

From George Sanborn Jr, May 14, 2007....

From: The Morning Guardian, Charlottetown, P.E.I., Thurs., 31 May 1900, p. 7

LOCAL BRIEFS

THE marriage of Mr. W.K. Rogerson son of Mr. Allen Rogerson, New Haven, and Miss Minnie McKinnon, daughter of the late John McKinnon, of Elmwood, took place at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J.M. Craig, Westford Street Lowell Mass, on Wednesday the 18th of April, Mr. Angus McClee of that place supported the groom, while Miss Annie McKinnon, sister of bride, acted as bridesmaid. Mr. Rogerson has been for the past few years employed in a wholesale grocery store in Lowell and is well known here. The couple will reside at 51 Willow St.

Massachusetts Vital Records. 1900 Marriages. Vol. 501, p. 415. No. 258

William K. Rogerson of Lowell, 21, clerk, born P.E. Island, 1st marriage, and Minnie McKinnon of Lowell, 21, housework, born P.E. Island, 1st marriage, married in Lowell, Mass., 18 April 1900 by Jas. M. Craig of Lowell, clergyman. Groom's parents: Allen Rogerson and Catherine Shaw. Bride's parents: John McKinnon and Sarah Buchanan. Reported from Lowell.